

Residuary Bequest

A common and simple way of supporting nonprofit organizations is by making a provision in your will or trust. The beneficiaries would include your heirs, of course, but many people also name charitable organizations. We appreciate your consideration of Greater Lovell Land Trust in your plans as a beneficiary.

Residuary Bequest A residuary bequest first leaves specific amounts to family members, friends, or other charities, and then designates that all or part of what remains should go to the land trust.

I bequeath (_____percent)(the entire value) of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate to the Greater Lovell Land Trust, a Maine nonprofit corporation having a principal place of business in Lovell Maine, to be used wherever, in its judgment, the need is greatest.
